Re: Supplement Documentation to Form 13909: Tax-Exempt Organization Complaint
(Referral) Alianza Americas, EIN 34-2066826

Dear Mr. Malone:

The National Legal and Policy Center (NLPC) hereby submits this supplemental complaint to the attached Form 13909 Tax-Exempt Organization Complaint (Referral) regarding violations of IRS rules and regulations by Alianza Americas, a registered 501(c)(3) tax exempt organization, Oscar Chacon, Executive Director, who signed the organization's 2021 Form 990, and Mirtha Colon, its principal officer and President for falsely stating in its 2021 return that Alianza Americas does not engage in lobbying activities and for failing to file Schedule C listing the amount it spends on its lobbying activities.

This complaint is a supplement to the one that NLPC filed on October 26, 2022, against Alianza Americas for also falsely reporting that it does not engage in lobbying activities for years 2019 and 2020. See attached complaint which is incorporated herewith.

NLPC is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) ethics watchdog organization that has filed ethics complaints against public officials and organizations for failing to comply with relevant disclosure laws and related laws and regulations at the state and federal level.<sup>1</sup> This complaint is based on information regarding the questionable and possible continued illegal lobbying activities of Alianza Americas as reported by investigative reporter Gabe Kaminsky in the Washington Examiner, “Soros-backed charity that may have ‘violated’ federal law still appears to be lobbying, experts say” (Nov. 22, 2022).<sup>2</sup>

Alianza Americas Continued Lobbying Activities in 2021

Besides the unreported lobbying activities that Alianza Americas engaged in in 2019 and 2020 as described in our October 26, 2022 complaint, the group continued to engage in unreported lobbying activities in 2021. As reported in the November 22, 2022, Washington Examiner article:

In October 2021, Alianza called on Congress to “pass legislation that grants permanent protections to immigrants,” including those who have TPS status. The charity posted a video of a TPS “beneficiary” urging the White House and Congress to grant those protections, and in November 2021, Alianza’s executive director, Oscar Chacon, led a TPS protest in front of the White House.

And yet, in its 2021 Form 990, filed on November 11, 2022 and only recently available, it answered “No” in Part IV, line 4 to the following question:

Section 501(c)(3) organizations. Did the organization engage in lobbying activities, or have a section 501(h) election in effect during the tax year? If “Yes,” complete Schedule C, Part II.<sup>3</sup>

According to the IRS’s definition of lobbying, “An organization will be regarded as attempting to influence legislation if it contacts, or urges the public to contact, members or employees of a legislative body for the purpose of proposing, supporting, or opposing legislation, or if the organization advocates the adoption or rejection of legislation.”<sup>4</sup> It seems abundantly

<sup>3</sup> <https://projects.propublica.org/nonprofits/organizations/342066826/202203159349302020/full>. In its 2021 Form 990, Alianza Americas noted its new address as 3030 W. Cermak Road, Chicago, IL 60623. <https://www.trulia.com/p/il/chicago/3030-w-cermak-rd-chicago-il-60623--2104178508>, The address listed in its 2020 Form 990 was 2875 W. Cermak Road, Chicago, IL 60623, but that address is the Apollo 2000 Theater, a concert hall, an unlikely office address. <https://www.choosechicago.com/listing/apollos-2000/>

clear that Alianza Americas has violated the IRS laws and regulations for failing to report that it engages in lobbying activities as defined by the IRS and failing to file the required Schedule C listing the expenditures for such activities.

This latest violation is all the more egregious since the group was on notice when NLPC filed its complaint against it on October 26, 2022 that it failed to disclose its lobbying activities for 2019 and 2020, and yet, a month later when it filed its 2021 Form 990, it continued to declare to the IRS under penalty of perjury that it did not engage in lobbying activities in 2021.

CONCLUSION

The IRS must conduct a full investigation and audit of Alianza Americas' lobbying activities and to assess appropriate civil and criminal penalties because the 2021 Form 990 as well as the 2019 and 2020 Form 990s were signed under penalty of perjury, and to revoke its tax exempt status for its repeated violations. The public interest demands it.

NLPC reserves the right to further supplement this complaint with addition information that it may obtain.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Malone:

The National Legal and Policy Center (NLPC) hereby submits this supplemental complaint to the attached Form 13909 Tax-Exempt Organization Complaint (Referral) regarding violations of IRS rules and regulations by Alianza Americas, a registered 501(c)(3) tax exempt organization, and Claudio Lucero, its listed principal officer and Oscar Chaco, Executive Director, who signed the organization's 2019 Form 990; and Mirtha Colon, its principal officer and President, who signed the organization's 2020 Form 990 return, for falsely stating in each of those filings that Alianza Americas does not engage in lobbying activities and for failing to file Schedule C listing the amount it spends on its lobbying activities.

NLPC is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) ethics watchdog organization that has filed ethics complaints against public officials and organizations for failing to comply with relevant disclosure laws and related laws and regulations at the state and federal level.<sup>1</sup> This complaint is based on information regarding the questionable and possible illegal lobbying activities of Alianza Americas as reported by investigative reporter Gabe Kaminsky in a recent news story in the Washington Examiner, "Soros-backed nonprofit group may have illegally used federal grants: GOP" (Oct. 22, 2022).<sup>2</sup>

Alianza Americas Lobbying Activities

Alianza Americas made news recently when it filed a class action lawsuit against Florida Governor Ron DeSantis for sending a group of migrants from Venezuela seeking asylum in the United States to Martha's Vineyard.<sup>3</sup> In the Washington Examiner article, Mr. Kaminsky reports that complaints were filed on October 21, 2022 with the Inspector General of the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) by Brian Harrison, the former Chief of Staff of HHS and now Texas State Representative, and U.S. Representatives Chip Roy and Beth Van Duyne from the border state of Texas, calling on the Inspector General to investigate whether Alianza Americas violated federal criminal law, 18 U.S.C. 1315, which prohibits any lobbying with appropriated federal funds. Alianza Americas was awarded federal grants of some $8.5 million by HHS.

As reported in the Washington Examiner article:

"I have continued to monitor actions taken by the Department and am deeply concerned that taxpayer dollars, in the guise of federal grants from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA), are being used to fund lobbying activities and contacts in the United States and foreign jurisdictions and to promote illegal immigration into the United States," Harrison wrote in his letter.

"As members of Congress we take seriously our roles of ensuring taxpayer dollars are used wisely and within the confines of the law, and we are sure you share that goal," Roy and Van Duyne wrote in their letter. "As such, we are requesting a review of all grants received by Alianza Americas as well as the publicly disclosed actions taken by Alianza Americas that would be in violation of the law and federal regulations."

Alianza held "two congressional briefings" in Washington, D.C., on immigration-related issues and made over 200 "visits to Congress" between June 2017 and September 2019, the nonprofit group disclosed on its 2019 tax documents. Alianza also disclosed it

"activated a nationwide community organizing strategy" after the Trump administration's "cancellation" of temporary protected status — letting immigrants remain in the United States if their native country is dealing with armed conflict or other extraordinary condition.<sup>4</sup>

Indeed, an examination of Alianza America's Form 990 returns for both 2019 and 2020 show extensive lobbying activities. In its 2020 Form 990 filing, the group reports in Part III:

This organization and mobilization led by Alianza Americas and member organizations have enabled our network and partner organizations in various states to engage hundreds of TPS holders so they could tell their own stories to policymakers in Congress and advocate for permanent solutions, and for immediate measures to protect TPS holders. Recent results our organizational strategy: Two congressional briefings on TPS, DACA and DED, held in Washington, DC More than 200 visits to Congress made between June 2017 and September 2019. (emphasis added).

And yet, it answered "No" in Part IV, line 4 to the following question:

Section 501(c)(3) organizations. Did the organization engage in lobbying activities, or have a section 501(h) election in effect during the tax year? If "Yes," complete Schedule C, Part II.<sup>5</sup>

Similarly, in its Form 990 filed for calendar year 2019, Allianz described its lobbying activity in Schedule O of their return as follows:

Save TPS:

In response to the cancellation of Temporary Protected Status (TPS) programs, we activated a nationwide community organizing strategy led by our members, including the "House for House" campaign in key cities in the USA This organization and mobilization led by Alianza Americas and member organizations have enabled our network and partner organizations in various states to engage hundreds of TPS holders so they could tell their own stories to policymakers in Congress and advocate for permanent solutions, and for immediate measures to protect TPS holders.

Recent results our organizational strategy:

Two congressional briefings on TPS, DACA and DED, held in Washington, DC More than 200 visits to Congress made between June 2017 and September 2019.<sup>6</sup>

And just as they did in their 2020 return, they checked the box "No" in response to the following question:

Section 501(c)(3) organizations. Did the organization engage in lobbying activities, or have a section 501(h) election in effect during the tax year? If "Yes," complete Schedule C, Part II.

According to the IRS's definition of lobbying, "An organization will be regarded as attempting to influence legislation if it contacts, or urges the public to contact, members or employees of a legislative body for the purpose of proposing, supporting, or opposing legislation, or if the organization advocates the adoption or rejection of legislation." (Emphasis added).<sup>7</sup> It seems abundantly clear that Alianza Americas has violated the IRS laws and regulations for failing to report that it engages in lobbying activities as defined by the IRS and failing to file the required Schedule C listing the expenditures for such activities.

CONCLUSION

The IRS must conduct a full investigation and audit of Alianza Americas' lobbying activities and to assess appropriate civil and criminal penalties, because the Form 990s were signed under penalty of perjury, and to revoke its tax exempt status if warranted. The public interest demands it.

NLPC reserves the right to further supplement this complaint with addition information that it may obtain.
